

CROWLEY INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT

POINTS OF PRIDE

1. FREE COUNSELING

Crowley ISD in partnership with Authentic Counseling and Coaching Center is pleased to offer 4-6 free group and individual counseling sessions to any family in need. Services are accessed through the student's campus counselor.

2. DEER CREEK

Good kids are being sent to the office! Dynamic Dragon referrals celebrate students showing great character. Twenty-five families have been excited to receive phone calls from administration!

3. JUNE DAVIS

On Saturday, November, 13, JWD opened it's campus to the neighborhood small business owners. The small business owners, that live in the JWD attendance area, were able to set up tables and host a pop up shop for the community to kick start holiday shopping.

4. EMPLOYEE CHILDCARE

The Employee Child Development Center is licensed by the state of Texas and subject to random unannounced inspections. They received 0 deficiencies during their November inspection.

5. SUE CROUCH

The bilingual Montessori class is soaring! The class is staffed by Jackie Garcia who is also a North Crowley High School alumae.

6. GROWING LEADERS

Crowley's own Rolanda McKenzie presented at the Texas Elementary Principals and Supervisors Association (TEPSA) Grow Leadership Conference! Anna Roe was a 2021 recipient of the Bravo Award presented by the Texas Council of Women School Executives. This award is for exemplary practitioners and innovative programs.

7. RICHARD ALLIE

Campus staff, students and teachers partnered with CISD PD and JROTC to honor those we've lost in 2021. The campus created a special Christmas tree with bulbs designated to honor the late Officer Charles Edward Holt and other loved ones who have impacted the RAMS family.

8. BRJ CTE COMMUNITY GARDEN

The December Garden to Table Cooking Demo and Seed Starting Workshop was a huge success! They are working to partner with STEM programs and 21st Century after school programs to support science curriculum.
