01 HISPANIC HERITAGE MONTH

September 15th - October 15th Crowley ISD will join the nation in celebrating Hispanic Heritage Month. In addition to our annual Hispanic Heritage Bowl which will be held on Saturday, October 15th, our campuses will be hosting individual events and activities for students and families. Estamos emocionados! We are excited!

02 CROWLEY HIGH

Congrats to Coach Wheeler and our CHS girls cross country team! The Lady Eagles won their first meet of the year, the Panther 2 mile. London Harden (2nd), Yaneily Gonzalez (6th), Ivy Washington (8th), Ava Washington (10th) and Anahi Chaparro (19th) dominated for CHS.

03 COLLEGE FAIR

Don't forget to mark your calendar for the CISD College Fair and Student Job Fair, Monday, September 26th at the Bill R. Johnson CTE Center from 6 - 8 PM. Hundreds of colleges and over 30 employers will be available to meet our students and help them step into a successful future. This event will be epic!

04 CROWLEY 9TH

On Wednesday, August 17th the young CH9 Eagles celebrated their first day of "Where are we going Wednesday?" Every Wednesday students and teachers represent their favorite college or branch of the military by wearing spirit gear and paraphernalia. This tradition will encourage students to look forward to their future.

05 MULTI-PURPOSE STADIUM

The Crowley ISD Multi-Purpose Stadium opened its doors on Thursday, September 8th and we could not be prouder. The new facility, part of the voter-approved 2007 bond package, will serve athletes, bands, community members and students for years to come. This facility belongs to all of us. We are Crowley pride unified.

06 J.A. HARGRAVE

On August 30th, J.A. Hargrave hosted over 100 dads, uncles, grandads and male role models to their first 'Donuts with Dad' event. Up next on Tuesday, September 20th they will kick off 'Muffins with Mom' at 7:10 a.m. We look forward to seeing moms, grand-mothers, aunts and positive adults at this event.

07 DEER CREEK

On September 8, more than 150 families joined together for an evening of food, fellowship and learning about what makes Deer Creek the best place to be! They conducted two demonstration experiences using Amplify Reading and Eureka Math. Parent engagement was high through Kahoots and Math Sprints. Way to go Dragons!

08 PROFESSIONAL LEARNING

Prior to welcoming students, our Professional Learning team worked hard to prepare staff for a great year. The District Learning Academy focused on intentional learning in various subjects and best practices to support students to thrive academically. New teachers in the Newbie Network connected to veteran teachers in MINT... Mentors Investing In New Teachers.
